

Stop the Plunder In Bankruptcy Court

Reorganizations loom large in a pattern of plunder, evident in the U.S. today. “Stripping of the bone” of debtor estates, when highly political law firms show up. The Betrayed Profession, Ambassador Sol Linowitz, 1994, p 46. “Its like the guy who robbed the banks, because that’s where the money was.” Prof Lynn Lo Pucki, teaching at Harvard Law in the fall, Bloomberg. “A glorified liquidation tool.” Prof Stephen Lubben, Bloomberg. “The foxes are guarding the henhouse, because lawyers don’t want to challenge other lawyers’ fees.” Prof Nancy Rapaport, Stanford Law grad. “There is a sense of entitlement that a lot of lawyers talk themselves into...,” she says, commenting on the study “Routine Illegality in Bankruptcy Court Fee Practices.”

A flagrant local example is Krieg De Vault--Indpls representative of the Commercial Law League (sic), now Meritas.

Krieg De Vault ran up a bill over $200,000, for an oversecured creditor in a chapter 13-- where the maximum fee allowed, for all services of a debtor’s attorney, was $2,500, absent extraordinary circumstances. This was under a clear legal duty of oversecured creditors, to show restraint. Nine hours on a claim form the party could do in 20 minutes, 4 hours on a reinstatement order that could be one sentence, 3 lawyers signing pleadings, multiple lawyers at plan hearings, lengthy phone conferences, etc.

The case involved a neighborhood rehab. The person doing most of the hard work, with considerable skill, filed easily confirmable plans; virtually completed the project; and had the installment arrears virtually in hand; within less than 2 years--in spite of Krieg De Vault’s utterly uncontrolled, scoff law litigation.

The slumlords (like Kreig De Vault’s clients) and derelict tenants pale compared to the reorganization cartel, as bloodsuckers.

This cartel is heavily jewish. The lore mentions cultivating vulnerable goy into power-- someone who looks like “one of them,” but is really more often than not, a foil. One cannot help but suspect that strategy, in selecting bankruptcy and other federal officials-- and thus, in the pattern of free plunder. Protecting the public demands a major, concerted effort. One might connect dots from—

The History. Jericho, the fate of the Midianites, the supremacist dogma of torah, early Talmud, classical exploitation of the goy, fears during the enlightenment, the Sept 3, 1882 Russian edict, dominant role in the Bolsheviks, and concerns of Voltaire, Churchill, Thomas Mann, Joseph Kennedy, Ford, probably Edison, Benjamin Freedman, Solzhenitsn, and so many other keen minds.

The Power Structure. Control of the money supply from the top; control of major news and entertainment; undue influence in foreign policy and Congress; and the ability to corrupt the courts, as examples. Half the partners in big DC law firms are jewish, like lawyers and physicians in 1925 Berlin-- from under 2-3% of the population, with equivalent intelligence.
America, as a faux republic?

Corrosive Events. Instant massive bailouts of wealthy bankers, after reckless investments; huge securities frauds, which regulators ignore ; sharp credit card tactics; uncontrolled reorganization fees; strong evidence of 9/11 as a zionist false flag operation—which the media also ignores.

In Beyond Chutzpah, Norman Finkelstein, PhD Princeton, discusses the mindset of jewish superiority, arising from economic and political power, and leading to reckless and ruthless conduct. He says these jewish elites need to be stopped.

The bankruptcy cartel, including its gentile foils in the federal system, is one of the worst examples.

Your writer scored 138 on nat merit, 3 pts from the cutoff, qualified for debate nationals, and attended Wabash on a full tuition Baker. He held some leadership roles, and turned in a higher GPA than each of his 5 classmates or fraternity brothers, who are partners or counsel at Baker & Daniels or Ice Miller. He passed the written and oral for the U.S. foreign service, and attended a top 10 law school (like maybe 3 of over 100 lawyers, at Krieg De Vault).

Let's bring this "stripping of the bone" to a halt! By bloodsucking shylocks, like Krack De Vault! And give America a much better deal, than the public officials who help them steal.
